A good crowd for an opening day's afternoon program attended the Chautauqua Saturday afternoon. The program opened with music by the Maryville band and the Normal Male Quartet.

Mr. Taylor being sick in bed, was unable to give his address.

The lecture by William Hirth of Columbia, Mo., was most excellent and should have been heard by every farmer in Nodaway county. His subject was "The New Missouri," and he brought out facts which showed that Missouri can, if the farmer will take hold and work, become the greatest section of country in the world.

In his opening paragraph he stated that it was his candid belief that Nodaway county was the greatest, barring none, of any county in the state. And Maryville, situated as she is, without the competition of large cities, and with her educational and business interests, should within the next ten years, grow in population to the extent of 20,000 or 25,000 people.

He then spoke of the agricultural and commercial demands of the day. The increase in yield which we are all striving for is not to gain a cash surplus, but is actually necessary to supply the growing demand for food and clothing.

Missouri Not Appreciated.

"Among all the states in the Union Missouri always has been and is probably the least appreciated," said Mr. Hirth. That it is largely our own fault he thinks is due to the self-contentedness of Missourians because of their prosperous and independent manner of living. But one of the greatest causes of the demeaning of Missouri is our own metropolitan papers.

One can scarcely ever pick up a paper from any one of Missouri's cities without seeing extolled the advantages of the rice fields of Arkansas and the wonderful corn and wheat lands of Kansas. The latter is especially true of the Kansas City papers and Missouri's resources are never mentioned.

Mr. Hirth said that as a boy he remembers one Missouri paper which was always talking of "Poor Old Missouri," and this same paper last winter published a disgraceful and untrue account of the desecration of the Sabbath day when the Missouri legislature adjourned in a riotous, drunken row. "It is no wonder that outsiders think of Missouri only as the home of Jesse and Frank James," continued the speaker.

Mr. Hirth then gave some interesting facts showing where Missouri really stands. He said:

"Last Sunday the reports of Coburn and Wilson came out showing the present condition of the corn crops in Kansas and Missouri respectively, and Missouri was 12 per cent better than Kansas. Last year Missouri raised more wheat than Kansas, yet one never hears of Missouri as a wheat state. Her corn exceeded that of Kansas by 105,000,000 bushels. Nodaway county alone raises more corn than ten western states.

"Missouri's lumber last year was valued at $35,000,000, as was her mining products, which were only $5,000,000 less than those of that great mining state Colorado.

"Our $5,000,000 cotton crop was almost four times as great as that of Virginia, and Charlton county raises more tobacco than any other single county in the United States. Missouri's live stock is surpassed in quantity only by one state, but not in quality, for it is a recognized fact that her blue-blooded stock take more prizes than the stock of any other state at the largest stock shows in the country.

"However, Missouri may be improved in many ways, as shown by the fact that in order to raise her $5,000,000 worth of poultry she must send to Iowa and Illinois for her incubators, and there is not a single plow or corn planter factory of consequence in the state."

On the Program for Tuesday Afternoon and Evening.

Mr. Hirth then spoke of the Missouri agricultural college as unsurpassed in the United States. He said that Mr. Jordan was saving each year the farmers of the state more money on their corn crops than it costs to run all departments of the state university combined. The quality of the work done is shown by the record of Prof. Trowbridge's stock judging team, which was undefeated by any other state. And this under the decision of the world's best judges from Scotland, Belgium, France and England.

The people of Missouri do not appreciate the full value of their university, nor does the legislature, thinks Mr. Hirth. With co-operation of the farmers the university could transform every farm in the state in the next five years. The farmer is the only man who does not think continually and intelligently about his work, said Mr. Hirth. The banker, lawyer and merchant is constantly on the search for any new information about his business. If the farmer would do the same conditions would soon be changed.

With a few remarks on the good roads movement Mr. Hirth closed his address.

Saturday Evening's Program.

The evening's program was opened with music by the Normal quartet, which was followed by local talks on how best to organize a permanent Chautauqua in Maryville. Dr. J. S. Ford of the First M. E. church, in speaking of a permanent Chautauqua here, said:

"Steps should be taken at once toward organizing a permanent Chautauqua in Maryville. For a Chautauqua entertainment inspires and instructs and has a most wholesome influence for good. We should have by all means next year a permanent Chautauqua board in charge of the Maryville Chautauqua."

Prof. John Cameron of the department of agriculture of the Northwest Normal gave his lecture on "Birds and Insect Life," with illustrated pictures, which closed the program for Saturday evening.

Sunday's Program.

The second day of the Maryville Chautauqua opened Sunday with a large attendance and a very enjoyable day followed. Mr. Palmer's Kaffir singing boys proved an interesting attraction, and the address of Dr. Beckes furnished a solid Sunday lecture.

Dr. Beckes was not entirely unknown here, as he supplied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church several times some years ago. Dr. Beckes' resemblance to Colonel Bryan is not striking enough to cause him any serious annoyance, but his platform appearance is good, and he is an earnest, forceful speaker, deeply interested in Chautauqua work

The subject of his lecture was "The Game of Life," and was based upon the passage found in Paul's letters to Timothy, "If any man strive for masteries yet is he not crowned except he strive lawfully." He likened the game of life to a game of base ball, in which every man should be eager and anxious to hit the ball, must play hard to win and must play strictly according to the rules of the game.

JOHN B. RATTO,
Entertainer, who is on the Program for Tuesday Evening.

He pleaded for the desire to do things by showing the beauty and brilliance of the crown of success which is won only by playing fair. There must be no fouling nor "cutting the corners." He urged every person to develop an individuality which opens to every man an unoccupied field, and all were advised to get close to nature, a field of boundless resources and interest.

The night lecture by Rev. Father Mcleod on "Evangeline" was a finished and beautiful presentation of the story of Longfellow's masterpiece and a strong development of the idea of the constancy and purity of woman's love that runs throughout the story. He congratulated the American people on being able to claim so delightful a poet as Longfellow, and made liberal quotations from the beautiful language in which the story is clothed.

Father Mcleod followed Evangeline through all her wanderings, even to the end, when she finally found her beloved Gabriel on his deathbed in a pesthouse in Philadelphia. He has made a personal study of the scenes in which the story is laid, both in Canada and in the United States, having visited every point mentioned and traversed the whole course of Evangeline's long search. To those familiar with the story it was a pleasant treat, and to those not familiar with it was an inspiration to study.

On Monday morning Prof. John Cameron organized a nature study class, many people joining.

Prof. P. O. Landon of the Conservatory of Music gave a lecture recital at 11 o'clock, being attended by many

Thomas Brooks Fletcher is giving his lecture this afternoon.

COMPANY F TO GO TO STATE ENCAMPMENT

Company F, with Captain Cook in command, will leave Saturday afternoon, August 19, in a special car on the Burlington for Nevada, Mo., for the annual encampment of the Missouri troops. About forty members of Company F will go. There has been much amusement for members of the local company on account of attempts of members to avoid a trip to Nevada for the maneuvers. There is a lot of hard work in the maneuvers and not much fun, and all sorts of pleas to avoid making the trip are being made to Captain Cook.

Company F will meet Companies K, L and A at St. Joseph Saturday evening and the trip to Nevada will be made with them. The state troops will pitch camp August 20 and will remain for seven days.

C. C. Corwin returned Monday morning from Chicago and spent the day in Maryville on business. He returned Monday evening to Chicago.

KAFFIR BOYS CHOIR

PROGRAM GIVEN WAS A REVELATION OF THEIR CAPABILITIES.

WHERE THEY COME FROM

Sabalah Was Here Six Years Ago With Mr. Balmer, Who Pays as Much Attention to Boys as Business.

The singing of the Kaffir boys Sunday afternoon and evening thrilled and charmed the people. It is indeed wonderful that five boys from the wilds of Africa, who a few years ago knew nothing whatever of Christian civilization, and were as wild and ignorant as heathenism can possibly be, can be trained to sing songs in our language so understandingly as to give newer and better meaning to them and reveal old truths of Holy Writ that seemed all new.

Mr. Balmer has been studying Kaffir boyhood for twenty-five years. They are his hobby, he says. He was here six years ago with five boys, one of whom, the oldest, is still with him. His name is Sabalah. He is 15 years old and belongs to the Fingo tribe. He is the only one of the boys whose parents are known and whose exact age is known. He is a brilliant boy for his years, and he is very solicitous in the care of the other boys. He waits on them at table and ably assists Mr. Balmer in caring for them and teaching them. They are decidedly correct in their manners, especially at table.

The other boys have no names, except as Mr. Balmer gives them a name, according to the tribes they represent.

The Hottentot is about 11 years old. He was given the name Koortie, meaning "small one," be cause of his tiny size when Mr. Balmer secured him five years ago. The little fellow came to him as a joke from a friend of Mr. Balmer, who is associated with him in his gold mining business in Africa. The friend is not in sympathy with Ma. Balmer in his work of training Kaffir boys in the Christian religion, and thinks he could spend his time better in a business way. By the aid of natives he secured the wildest specimen of a boy that could be found, and so wild was he that he would not be tolerated by the natives themselves to eat at the common place of eating (as this tribe lives on the communistic plan), and he was not allowed to sleep in their huts, if they knew it. The poor little creature had to "scratch" for an existence and was as wild as an animal of the jungles. He was caught, however, and sent to Mr. Balmer, with the assurance that here was one he could nothing with. with. And it did seem a hopeless task for a whole year. By following the admonition "Let patience have her perfect work," Mr. Balmer sees with supreme satisfaction the change in the boy, the change that none of us can appreciate. He is sweet and obedient and is learning rapidly.

Basuto, the light colored boy, whose soft, sweet soprano is so delightfully musical, is of the finest, most complete tribe in South Africa. They have their own government, their own language. This boy's smile is bewitching.

The little black fellow is about 5 years old. The other boy, Amaxosa, is from the red Kaffir tribe, called so because they decorate their bodies with clay.

The boys do not speak English. They are taught their songs by Mr. Balmer, who teaches them perfectly the meaning of each word and they sing with perfect understanding, in letter and spirit, as was proven Sunday in the sacred songs and Eugene Field's "Winkin' and Blinkin' and Nod."

MRS. GEORGE S. BAKER DIED SUNDAY NIGHT

Mrs. George S. Baker died Sunday night at 10 o'clock, after a year of failing health from a complication of diseases, due to a general breaking down of her physical powers.

The funeral services have not yet been arranged, and the time will not be set until a sister, Mrs. Helen Austin of Hannibal, Mo., has been heard from. It is not expected that she can attend the services as she is rather an invalid from rheumatism.

Mrs. Baker was nearly 70 years old and was a native of Kentucky. She was twice married. Her maiden name was Julia A. Abbott. Her first husband was William Stephens, whose death occurred at their home in Kansas City about forty years ago. His burial took place in Hannibal, Mrs. Baker's home at the time of their marriage. About thirty years ago she was married to George S. Baker of this city. She was a member of the Episcopal church and a faithful adherent of that faith. Mrs. Baker was a woman of many pleasant social qualities, and she leaves many sincere friends.

MONTGOMERY SOLD

HIS INTEREST IN THE CLOTHING STORE TO CORWIN AND MURRIN.

TO RETIRE FROM BUSINESS

Has Been in Business Here for Fourteen Years and Has Been Successful—To Remain Here.

J. F. Montgomery sold out his interest in the Montgomery-Corwin-Murrin clothing store Monday to his partners, C. C. Corwin and John Murrin. Mr. Montgomery is to retire from active business life and has several plans under consideration. He will, however, remain with the new firm until November 1. His son, W. J. Montgomery, will remain with the firm for the present, but he expects to leave soon, as he has several offers under consideration.

Mr. Montgomery has been in business in Maryville for the past fourteen years. In 1897 Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Corwin bought out the clothing store of G. W. Snapp & Son, and in 1907 the clothing firm was incorporated, with John Murrin as a third partner.

The two members of the new firm are well known over the county and are successful business men. John Murrin has been connected with the clothing store for twenty-seven years, having started with Hughes & Snapp in 1884. He was employed in the store when Geo. W. Snapp & Son were in charge, and also when Montgomery & Corwin bought out the store.

The many friends of Mr. Montgomery are sorry to learn of his retirement from active business in Maryville, but are wishing the new firm success. Mr. Montgomery comes from a family of merchants that have been in business in Northwest Missouri since pioneer days, and have always been noted for the success they have attained.

The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the family home, conducted by Rev. Claude J. Miller of the First Christian church. Mr. and Mrs. Godsey have three other children, Olivetta, William Townsend and Robert Merl.

STILL IN ERROR.

In deciding to veto the admission of New Mexico and Arizona into the Union, the President begins the enactment of another series of political errors for which his administration stands in a class alone. It is also understood that he will veto all the tariff reform bills sent to him by this session of the Sixty-second Congress, even to those schedules upon which he has himself urged the immediate need of revision.

The President's vetoes will be not only an injustice to the people whom he has the honor to serve, but they will be little short of an outrage upon political expediency. The President's reasons so far offered fall far short of justifying his refusal to grant the measure of relief offered in these bills.

The people of New Mexico and Arizona have been denied statehood by Congress for the last forty years on one pretext or another, but really because they could not be counted on as safely Republican in politics. To deny them now upon the simple ground that one of them has provided in its constitution for the recall of its political officers, after the bill has passed both branches of Congress by an overwhelming majority, is not only an error but a grave wrong.

It is wrong because the people of every state have the right to govern themselves according to their own wishes so long as they do not exceed the limitations of the federal constitution, and the principle in itself affords a protection to the people and a privilege which they are not likely to abuse. The bill, as passed, provides for the submission of the question again to the people, and this is as far as the members of the senate and house felt that they were justified in going. If the people of Arizona a second time in their sober moments, declare for the principle, they should have the right to it.

The President's announced opposition to the wool bill and the free list bill is little short of frivolous. He has declared himself that the present wool schedule is "indefensible" and needs immediate revision downward. In order to delay tariff revision which threatened to become a nightmare to the standpat Republicans, Aldrich and Cannon evolved the idea of a tariff commission during the Sixty-first Congress, and the President fell in with the idea. The commission was appointed and has been in existence many months, but all through the present session of Congress and up to the present time it has refused to make any report. The elections last fall were a plain revolt against delay and the refusal to obey the public will which the present session has earnestly endeavored to heed and observe.

While the commission may or may not gather honest information and helpful facts, it is up to Congress to enact laws. No commission is needed to determine that relief is needed. The house and senate have shown their earnestness by smoothing out their differences and agreeing upon bills that can pass both houses. Now, if Mr. Taft nullifies all this work upon the flimsy excuse that his delinquent commission has not taken its job seriously enough to offer any information to a body that has been industrious and active, he will assume the most ridiculous position he has yet taken since "brother Charley" became the real President.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE.

Maryville People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy and other serious troubles. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Maryville proof:

G. W. Hempstead, East First street, Maryville, Mo., says: "When suffering from an extreme sensitiveness in the small of my back, I was advised by a friend to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. I procured a box at Charles A. Love's drug store and they lived up to representations. I have never had any trouble from my back or kidneys since."

SEVERAL ARRESTS MADE FOR FAST DRIVING

Several arrests of auto drivers were made Sunday evening by Night Policeman Clyde Avitt for reckless and fast driving in the city. It is understood that six or seven arrests were made and that they will appear before or Tuesday morning to answer to the Police Judge Johnson this afternoon charge.

Several automobilists on coming from the Chautauqua Sunday evening seemed to disregard altogether the speed ordinance and also the safety of the people. Several of the cars, it is said, were going at a fast clip, estimated to be nearly twenty-five or thirty miles an hour, while coming to the city on Fourth street, which was crowded with buses and buggies. Several of the automobilists are hauling the people to and from the Chautauqua grounds this week and during the afternoon and evening Sunday the street was used and was badly crowded with vehicles.

A Turkish Love Story.

A Turk knocked at his beloved's door, and a voice answered from within, "Who is there?"

Then he answered, "It is I."

Then the voice said, "This house will not hold thee and me."

And the door was not opened.

Then went the lover into the desert, where there is nothing but Allah, and fasted and prayed in solitude.

And after a year he returned and knocked again at the door.

And again the voice asked, "Who is there?"

And he said, "It is thyself."

And the door was opened to him.

BACK FROM RACE CONGRESS

Dr. Felix Adler Tells of Uplift Plans Made in London.

New York, Aug. 14.—Dr. Felix Adler, head of the Society for Ethical Culture, has returned from attending the universal race congress in London, enthusiastic over the plans made there.

"It was decided to establish two bureaus," he said, "the first a press bureau to disseminate information concerning the activities of the oppressed races. The other will attempt to make authentic investigations of the grievances of the oppressed races."

POLICE AND MOBS FIGHT IN LIVERPOOL

Troops Called Out After Policeman is Killed.

Liverpool, Eng., Aug. 14.—Serious rioting, growing out of the strike, took place here. One policeman was killed by being struck on the head with a brick and many persons were injured.

An altercation between a policeman and strikers during a transport workers' demonstration at St. George's hall started the trouble, which culminated in a general melee. When this disorder had been put down and the strikers scattered they gathered again in the Islington quarter and resumed their attacks upon the officers with serious results.

One hundred thousand men were gathered in groups about St. George's hall listening to speeches by labor agitators, and the scenes of violence following the attack upon policemen necessitated the calling out of police reserves. When they arrived one party of fifteen policemen was surrounded and disarmed, the rioters attacking them with their own batons. In the fight the commanding officer of the police was dangerously wounded.

So great was the disorder that the riot act was read and troops were called out to assist the police. The mob fought desperately with sticks and stones and, in fact, with any handy missile. Gradually, however, by the combined efforts of the troops and police, the crowds which were surrounding seven speakers' platforms erected on the plateau fronting the hall, were cleared away. Many policemen and rioters were injured in the hand-to-hand fighting. After the fight St. George's hall was converted into a temporary hospital.

Driven from the center of the city the crowd sullenly repaired to the Islington quarter, one of the lowest and roughest in Liverpool. Here the police were baffled in the narrow streets, for the desperate rioters barricaded themselves in the houses and volleyed down bricks, slates and chimney pots from the roofs upon their heads.

Campaign Bill Agreed To.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Agreement on the campaign publicity bill was reached by the senate and house conferees. The measure as agreed on will be practically the same as that adopted by the senate, which amended the house bill providing for publicity in primary as well as other elections. The limitation of campaign expenditures to $5,000 for a congressional, and to $10,000 for a senatorial candidate, will be retained.

Negroes Find Place to Stay.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 14.—Difficulty in securing accommodations for the thousand or more delegates to the National Negro Educational association, which threatened to mar proceedings, has been overcome by the establishment of several temporary hotels and restaurants for the exclusive use of delegates who found hotel doors closed to them by reason of their color.

TWO KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

Pennsylvania Flyer Jumps Track at Fort Wayne.

THIRTY OTHERS ARE INJURED.

Two Engines Pulling Eighteen-Hour Train From Chicago to New York Sideswipe Freight Engine and Pile Up—Steel Cars Save Many Lives.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 14.—Two persons were killed and thirty injured when the Pennsylvania eighteen-hour train, enroute from Chicago to New York, jumped the track on the western outskirts of the city while going at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

In leaving the rails the two engines pulling the passenger train sideswiped a freight engine.

The baggage car, smoker, buffet and two sleepers turned over in the ditch. Most of the injured were seated in the diner and smoker when the accident occurred. The main track and the track on which the freight train was standing were torn up for a distance of two hundred yards.

The two engines of the flyer were torn from their trucks and thrown down the embankment to the park, while the engine of the freight reared up in the air over the trucks of the flyer's engines.

The all-steel cars of the flyer were put to the first actual wreck test they have ever undergone and proved to be all that has been claimed for them by their designers.

Only the first two cars of the heavy nine-car train were badly smashed.

Passengers on the seven rear cars escaped with only cuts and bruises whereas, it is declared by railroad men, if the cars had been of the old fashioned wood construction, the carnage would have been frightful.

The dead: Baggageman Valentine Snyder; Engineer William Arreck.

It will take a day or more for the wreck trains to clear away the wreck, as the cars are extremely heavy.

CONGRESS WILL SOON END

Tariff Revision Legislation Will Be Settled This Week.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The whole tariff revision legislation question will be settled this week, which in all probability will mark the closing of congress. Almost all of the members of both houses are anxious to get home.

All the power of the Democratic party that now controls the house for the first time in many years and of the effective Democratic-progressive-Republican coalition in the senate will be centered on quick action in the trio of pending tariff measures. This means, in the belief of leaders of both parties, an adjournment possibly by the end of the week, or at any rate, within a few days thereafter.

Out of the present tangled situation, with the three tariff bills—wool, free list and cotton—in varying stages of legislation, the wool measure will be the first to emerge. It will be rushed past its final stage in the house by adoption of the conference report today, and then hurled over to the senate for adoption there, if possible, Tuesday, and then on to the expected presidential veto, which awaits all the tariff revision bills.

The state election will be held Sunday, Aug. 20, and it is the general impression that it will be overwhelmingly for Madero and Gonzales.

Pierre, S. D., Aug. 14.—The holders of wolf bounty certificates this year will get only 55 cents on the dollar of their face value. While the appropriation is $13,000, the claims amount to $23,365, and as the law provides that all claims must be prorated out of the total amount appropriated, the face value must be scaled.

COURTLAND W. TOEL LOCATES AT LITTLE ROCK

Courtland W. Toel, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Toel of this city, went to Little Rock, Ark., last week and on Saturday commenced work with the Henry Leigh wholesale grocery house of that city as salesman to the jobbing trade of that house. This is a splendid position for our Maryville young man, and is due recognition of his business ability.

He has been a traveling salesman for a St. Joseph house—E. W. Chase & Sons—and the John C. Morrell company of Des Moines, Ia., since he was graduated from our high school, four years ago. Not many young men of his age—22 years—could be ready to accept such a place as he has just taken, and there is no doubt about his success.

Miss Ella Roney left Monday for St. Joseph, where she will study the fall styles in millinery at the Englehart-Davison wholesale house.

Mrs. Edward Brown and Mrs. Harry Martin of Hopkins were business visitors in the city Saturday.

WATER LILLIES OF RARE BEAUTY MAY BE OURS

In reply to The Democrat-Forum's query Saturday about starting water lilies in McJimsey lake and other lakes about our city, in speaking of the water lilies at Mark Turner's store, Alfred Engelmann, our florist, said Monday that the flowers are easily started and could be successfully cultivated here. We hope our folks who are interested in the matter of civic beauty will read what he says and then see what can be done to make these little bodies of water beautiful. Mr. Engelmann says:

"There are hundreds of varieties of both hardy and tender water lilies in all colors, ranging from the purest white to darkest crimson, and from the most exquisite shade of soft yellow to the tenderest shade of blue. The species range in latitude from the tropics to the far north and anything from a tiny fish globe to a lake or pond, whether artificial or natural, can be beautified by these beautiful specimens, which need practically no attention."

Mr. Engelmann can secure for any one the proper varieties suitable for their demands, and start them in proper season. Prices range from a few cents, for the more common species, to as many dollars for the choicer and rarer varieties.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

A Simple Remedy Brings Back the Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappear.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Koch Pharmacy.

CHARGE RANCHER SMOTHERS WIFE

Henry Claussen and Sister-in-Law Arrested at Sheridan.

WOMAN'S BODY WAS EXHUMED

No Traces of Typhoid, Declared Cause of Death, to Be Found, and Absence of Poison Also Noted—Man's Actions Arouse Suspicion.

Sheridan, Wyo., Aug. 14.—Charged with the murder of his wife, who died July 3 under mysterious circumstances, Herman Claussen, a prominent and wealthy Sheridan county rancher, was placed under arrest upon a warrant sworn out by County Attorney Gogerty.

His sister-in-law, Miss Augusta Vogelar, who has been visiting at the ranch, was also arrested as an accessory.

International complications may ensue as a result of the arrests, as the Vogelar family, of which Mrs. Claussen was a member, is believed to be closely connected with official circles in Germany.

At the time of Mrs. Claussen's death, typhoid fever was given as the cause. No physician was called during her supposed illness, Claussen and Miss Vogelar being the only attendants, but as nothing unusual developed from an interrogation by the health officer and coroner, no inquest was held and only a cursory examination of the body was made.

Interment was made on the ranch.

Husband's Actions Arouse Suspicion.

Claussen's peculiar actions when he called at a local undertaking establishment for a casket, his known eccentricities, the fact that none of his neighbors had been aware of his wife's illness and rumors picked up in the vicinity of the ranch later combined to arouse the suspicions of the authorities. On July 9 the body was exhumed and a post-mortem and inquest held. Drs. W. A. Steffen and E. E. Levers of Sheridan made the examination and found no evidence of typhoid. A verdict of "cause unknown" was returned by the coroner's jury.

Portions of the anatomy were sent by Coroner Halley to Prof. Knight of the state university at Laramie for chemical examination for poisons, but nothing developed and a negative report was returned. The supposition now is that Mrs. Claussen was strangled or smothered to death. The police are said to have one witness who will swear he saw Mrs. Claussen at work in the garden four days before her death and three who saw her sitting at the table with her sister and husband the evening of the same day. Others are reported to have overheard Claussen make the statement that Miss Vogeler was his intended second wife.

SKY CONTESTS IN CHICAGO

Series of Accidents Marks Opening of Aviation Meet.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—A series of accidents that put three aeroplanes out of commission without injuring their drivers did not serve to mar the success of the opening of the international aviation meet here.

While no records were broken, the number of aviators participating and the total time spent in the air exceeded the anticipations even of the flyers.

Arthur B. Stone and his mechanic, in a Queen monoplane, suffered the most serious accident, their fall resembling that in which Moissant met his death. The men had risen to a height of forty-five feet when a sudden gust of wind struck the car, and as Stone attempted a sharp turn the airship overturned. Both men fell under the aeroplane but missed the engine and escaped unhurt.

Soon afterward Frankie Coffyn, by an eastward swoop, struck the monoplane in which Rene Simon was rising, disabling Simon's car so it could not be used.

The machines driven by St. Croix, Johnstone, James V. Martin and Capt. Paul W. Beck also sustained injuries while alighting.

Earl L. Ovington was the winner in the two chief events that were started. In his monoplane he defeated Thomas Sopwith in the twenty-mile monoplane race, making the fifteen laps in 23 minutes and 51 seconds. Sopwith ended the race in six seconds greater elapsed time.

Ovington also won the fourteen-mile race across the water, the course being two trips from the judges' stand around a crib three and one-half miles in Lake Michigan. Ovington completed the course in 17 minutes 13 seconds. Sopwith again was second with 17 minutes 20 seconds; Stone, who had obtained another machine, being third in 19 minutes 30 seconds.

Unofficial estimates gave both the altitude and endurance contests to W. G. Beatty.

Meet Next in Manila.

Detroit, Aug. 14.—The Army of the Philippines convention ended here with selection of Manila, P. I., for the 1912 reunion. F. Warner Karling of Kansas City, Mo., was elected commander-in-chief. A proposal to affiliate with the Spanish war veterans was unanimously rejected.

FIVE HUNDRED DEAD IN JAPAN

Tidal Wave and Typhoon Cause Great Devastation.

OVER 200 FISHERMAN DROWN

Water at Tokio Swept Away Many Houses, Including Tea House With 33 Persons—People Blown From Their Housetops.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 14.—More than 500 lives were lost and great devastation ashore and afloat resulted from a typhoon and tidal wave which swept over Japan, according to advices brought here by the Empress of Japan. The fishing fleets from Shidzuoka suffered severely. More than 200 fishermen were drowned.

At Tokyo a tidal wave swept away many houses, including a large tea house with thirty-five people. The Suzaki licensed quarters on Shimagaway bay were demolished, scores of persons being drowned, crushed to death or mortally injured. The noted Sherigawa inlaid work factory collapsed and fifteen employes were killed, those who escaped swimming to roofs of neighboring houses after crawling from the debris.

A torpedo boat was swept ashore at Tokyo and several steamers foundered, while big liners dragged anchors.

Eight of forty men on the Aomori Maru survived when she went down in the typhoon off Kuna and 100 fishermen were drowned off there. A dredge at Chiba was lifted from its moorings and cast far ashore. At this place sixty-four men who went to save a fishing depot were drowned. Messages from many points tell similar tales of disaster, of fishing vessels sunk, rivers overflowed and sea walls broken.

Thousands of houses collapsed, the number in Tokyo and vicinity being over 12,000, according to official statistics. The warehouse and factory districts of Toyko suffered severely, eight warehouses containing goods worth $16,000,000 being demolished.

The typhoon came in the early morning, blowing more than sixty-five miles. As they rose the waves pounded the sea walls and the tidal wave followed, the lower districts of Tokyo being flooded with such suddenness that the awakened residents took shelter on housetops, many to be blown off and drowned.

FORGERS BUSY IN THE WEST

Iowa Officers Find Many Cases Where Bogus Checks Are Passed.

Des Moines, Aug. 14.—Secretary P. W. Hall of the Iowa Bankers' association is engaged in aiding detectives in running down what is believed to be a clever gang of check forgers who have been taking advantage of the fact that a goodly number of wealthy Iowa farmers have been spending the summer in the west.

They succeeded in effecting the arrest at Manitou, Colo., of F. W. Rhodes and an accomplice, who are accused of getting $475 on a check by means of the forged name of an Iowa farmer. Jacob Arnold of Dexter, Ia., was in Manitou about three weeks ago, and there met Rhodes, who said he was a banker and talked of starting a bank in Iowa. A week later the bank at Dexter received a check for $475, purporting to be signed by Arnold, and when the latter returned home recently, he for the first time heard of it.

Rhodes is supposed to have obtained Arnold's name from the hotel register. The bankers' association is also on the trail of Walter Ellick, who, at Salt Lake City, is supposed to have forged the name of a farmer living near Essex, Ia., for $350.

Another similar case has been heard from at Florence, Colo., where $610 was secured. A check for $1,000 on a Des Moines bank, supposed to be signed by a farmer, was received from Salt Lake City, but the bank was suspicious and refused to pay and it is expected an arrest will follow. Other cases are at Ogden and Bronson, Mo.

ASSAILS CAMORRA LAWYER

Witness Says Lioy Bribed Him to Swear to False Testimony.

Viterbo, Aug. 14.—Alessandro Lioy, the attorney for the defense, was the object of an unfriendly demonstration at the Camorra trial. Grimaldi, formerly chief of the branch of the Camorra at Castellamare, testified that Lioy had bribed him to bear false witness against Tomasso de Angelis. It is charged that the Camorrists, wishing to divert suspicion from themselves, caused the priest, Vitozzi, to falsely denounce De Angelis and Gaelano Amedeo as the murderers of Gennaro Cuoccolo and Signora Cuoccolo.

Political Unrest in Spain.

Madrid, Aug. 14.—Recent events, including the mutiny on the Spanish battleship Numanira and strikes and republican demonstration at Cadiz and Barcelona, indicate clearly the political unrest in Spain and the serious difficulties met by the government in its attempt to maintain order. Agitation against the ministry and the monarchy increases and censorship over press and telegraph is severe.

CHAUTAUQUA STARTS OUT WELL AND PROMISES TO BE A SUCCESSFUL ONE

Large Attendance Has Been Present Daily at the Sessions---Hirth's Talk on "The New Missouri" and the Addresses Given By Dr. Beckes and Rev. Father Macleod.

This Evening's Program.

8:00—Evening of "Song and Story," by Mr. Palmer and Kaffir Boys Choir.

Tuesday's Program.

Morning.

9:30—Prof. Cameron's classes.

11:00—Band concert.

Afternoon.

2:00—Orphean Male Quartet.

2:45—Lecture, Hon. J. Frank Hanley.

4:00—Band concert.

Evening.

7:45—Orphean Quartet.

8:30—John B. Ratto, entertainer.

A good crowd for an opening day's afternoon program attended the Chautauqua Saturday afternoon. The program opened with music by the Maryville band and the Normal Male Quartet.

Dr. Taylor being sick in bed, was unable to give his address.

The lecture by William Hirth of Columbia, Mo., was most excellent and should have been heard by every farmer in Nodaway county. His subject was "The New Missouri," and he brought out facts which showed that Missouri can, if the farmer will take hold and work, become the greatest section of country in the world.

In his opening paragraph he stated that it was his candid belief that Nodaway county was the greatest, barring none, of any county in the state. And Maryville, situated as she is, without the competition of large cities, and with her educational and business interests, should within the next ten years, grow in population to the extent of 20,000 or 25,000 people.

He then spoke of the agricultural and commercial demands of the day. The increase in yield which we are all striving for is not to gain a cash surplus, but is actually necessary to supply the growing demand for food and clothing.

Missouri Not Appreciated.

"Among all the states in the Union Missouri always has been and is probably the least appreciated," said Mr. Hirth. That it is largely our own fault he thinks is due to the self-contentedness of Missourians because of their prosperous and independent manner of living. But one of the greatest causes of the demeaning of Missouri is our own metropolitan papers.

One can scarcely ever pick up a paper from any one of Missouri's cities without seeing extolled the advantages of the rice fields of Arkansas and the wonderful corn and wheat lands of Kansas. The latter is especially true of the Kansas City papers and Missouri's resources are never mentioned.

Mr. Hirth said that as a boy he remembers one Missouri paper which was always talking of "Poor Old Missouri," and this same paper last winter published a disgraceful and untrue account of the desecration of the Sabbath day when the Missouri legislature adjourned in a riotous, drunken row. "It is no wonder that outsiders think of Missouri only as the home of Jesse and Frank James," continued the speaker.

Mr. Hirth then gave some interesting facts showing where Missouri really stands. He said:

"Last Sunday the reports of Coburn and Wilson came out showing the present condition of the corn crops in Kansas and Missouri respectively, and Missouri was 12 per cent better than Kansas. Last year Missouri raised more wheat than Kansas, yet one never hears of Missouri as a wheat state. Her corn exceeded that of Kansas by 105,000,000 bushels. Nodaway county alone raises more corn than ten western states.

"Missouri's lumber last year was valued at $35,000,000, as was her mining products, which were only $5,000,000 less than those of that great mining state Colorado.

"Our $5,000,000 cotton crop was almost four times as great as that of Virginia, and Charlton county raises more tobacco than any other single county in the United States. Missouri's live stock is surpassed in quantity only by one state, but not in quality, for it is a recognized fact that her blue-blooded stock take more prizes than the stock of any other state at the largest stock shows in the country.

"However, Missouri may be improved in many ways, as shown by the fact that in order to raise her $5,000,000 worth of poultry she must send to Iowa and Illinois for her incubators, and there is not a single plow or corn planter factory of consequence in the state."

On the Program for Tuesday Afternoon and Evening.

Mr. Hirth then spoke of the Missouri agricultural college as unsurpassed in the United States. He said that Mr. Jordan was saving each year the farmers of the state more money on their corn crops than it costs to run all departments of the state university combined. The quality of the work done is shown by the record of Prof. Trowbridge's stock judging team, which was undefeated by any other state. And this under the decision of the world's best judges from Scotland, Belgium, France and England.

The people of Missouri do not appreciate the full value of their university, nor does the legislature, thinks Mr. Hirth. With co-operation of the farmers the university could transform every farm in the state in the next five years. The farmer is the only man who does not think continually and intelligently about his work, said Mr. Hirth. The banker, lawyer and merchant is constantly on the search for any new information about his business. If the farmer would do the same conditions would soon be changed.

With a few remarks on the good roads movement Mr. Hirth closed his address.

Saturday Evening's Program.

The evening's program was opened with music by the Normal quartet, which was followed by local talks on how best to organize a permanent Chautauqua in Maryville. Dr. J. S. Ford of the First M. E. church, in speaking of a permanent Chautauqua here, said:

"Steps should be taken at once toward organizing a permanent Chautauqua in Maryville. For a Chautauqua entertainment inspires and instructs and has a most wholesome influence for good. We should have by all means next year a permanent Chautauqua board in charge of the Maryville Chautauqua."

Prof. John Cameron of the department of agriculture of the Northwest Normal gave his lecture on "Birds and Insect Life," with illustrated pictures, which closed the program for Saturday evening.

Sunday's Program.

The second day of the Maryville Chautauqua opened Sunday with a large attendance and a very enjoyable day followed. Mr. Palmer's Kaffir singing boys proved an interesting attraction, and the address of Dr. Beckes furnished a solid Sunday lecture.

Dr. Beckes was not entirely unknown here, as he supplied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church several times some years ago. Dr. Beckes' resemblance to Colonel Bryan is not striking enough to cause him any serious annoyance, but his platform appearance is good, and he is an earnest, forceful speaker, deeply interested in Chautauqua work

The subject of his lecture was "The Game of Life," and was based upon the passage found in Paul's letters to Timothy, "If any man strive for masteries yet is he not crowned except he strive lawfully." He likened the game of life to a game of base ball, in which every man should be eager and anxious to hit the ball, must play hard to win and must play strictly according to the rules of the game.

JOHN B. RATTO,
Entertainer, who is on the Program for Tuesday Evening.

He pleaded for the desire to do things by showing the beauty and brilliance of the crown of success which is won only by playing fair. There must be no fouling nor "cutting the corners." He urged every person to develop an individuality which opens to every man an unoccupied field, and all were advised to get close to nature, a field of boundless resources and interest.

The night lecture by Rev. Father Mcleod on "Evangeline" was a finished and beautiful presentation of the story of Longfellow's masterpiece and a strong development of the idea of the constancy and purity of woman's love that runs throughout the story. He congratulated the American people on being able to claim so delightful a poet as Longfellow, and made liberal quotations from the beautiful language in which the story is clothed.

Father Mcleod followed Evangeline through all her wanderings, even to the end, when she finally found her beloved Gabriel on his deathbed in a pesthouse in Philadelphia. He has made a personal study of the scenes in which the story is laid, both in Canada and in the United States, having visited every point mentioned and traversed the whole course of Evangeline's long search. To those familiar with the story it was a pleasant treat, and to those not familiar with it was an inspiration to study.

On Monday morning Prof. John Cameron organized a nature study class, many people joining.

Prof. P. O. Landon of the Conservatory of Music gave a lecture recital at 11 o'clock, being attended by many

Thomas Brooks Fletcher is giving his lecture this afternoon.

COMPANY F TO GO TO STATE ENCAMPMENT

Company F, with Captain Cook in command, will leave Saturday afternoon, August 19, in a special car on the Burlington for Nevada, Mo., for the annual encampment of the Missouri troops. About forty members of Company F will go. There has been much amusement for members of the local company on account of attempts of members to avoid a trip to Nevada for the maneuvers. There is a lot of hard work in the maneuvers and not much fun, and all sorts of pleas to avoid making the trip are being made to Captain Cook.

Company F will meet Companies K, L and A at St. Joseph Saturday evening and the trip to Nevada will be made with them. The state troops will pitch camp August 20 and will remain for seven days.

C. C. Corwin returned Monday morning from Chicago and spent the day in Maryville on business. He returned Monday evening to Chicago.

KAFFIR BOYS CHOIR

PROGRAM GIVEN WAS A REVELATION OF THEIR CAPABILITIES.

WHERE THEY COME FROM

Sabalah Was Here Six Years Ago With Mr. Balmer, Who Pays as Much Attention to Boys as Business.

The singing of the Kaffir boys Sunday afternoon and evening thrilled and charmed the people. It is indeed wonderful that five boys from the wilds of Africa, who a few years ago knew nothing whatever of Christian civilization, and were as wild and ignorant as heathenism can possibly be, can be trained to sing songs in our language so understandingly as to give newer and better meaning to them and reveal old truths of Holy Writ that seemed all new.

Mr. Balmer has been studying Kaffir boyhood for twenty-five years. They are his hobby, he says. He was here six years ago with five boys, one of whom, the oldest, is still with him. His name is Sabalah. He is 15 years old and belongs to the Fingo tribe. He is the only one of the boys whose parents are known and whose exact age is known. He is a brilliant boy for his years, and he is very solicitous in the care of the other boys. He waits on them at table and ably assists Mr. Balmer in caring for them and teaching them. They are decidedly correct in their manners, especially at table.

The other boys have no names, except as Mr. Balmer gives them a name, according to the tribes they represent.

The Hottentot is about 11 years old. He was given the name Koortie, meaning "small one," be cause of his tiny size when Mr. Balmer secured him five years ago. The little fellow came to him as a joke from a friend of Mr. Balmer, who is associated with him in his gold mining business in Africa. The friend is not in sympathy with Ma. Balmer in his work of training Kaffir boys in the Christian religion, and thinks he could spend his time better in a business way. By the aid of natives he secured the wildest specimen of a boy that could be found, and so wild was he that he would not be tolerated by the natives themselves to eat at the common place of eating (as this tribe lives on the communistic plan), and he was not allowed to sleep in their huts, if they knew it. The poor little creature had to "scratch" for an existence and was as wild as an animal of the jungles. He was caught, however, and sent to Mr. Balmer, with the assurance that here was one he could nothing with, with. And it did seem a hopeless task for a whole year. By following the admonition "Let patience have her perfect work," Mr. Balmer sees with supreme satisfaction the change in the boy, the change that none of us can appreciate. He is sweet and obedient and is learning rapidly.

Basuto, the light colored boy, whose soft, sweet soprano is so delightfully musical, is of the finest, most complete tribe in South Africa. They have their own government, their own language. This boy's smile is bewitching.

The little black fellow is about 5 years old. The other boy, Amaxosa, is from the red Kaffir tribe, called so because they decorate their bodies with clay.

The boys do not speak English. They are taught their songs by Mr. Balmer, who teaches them perfectly the meaning of each word and they sing with perfect understanding, in letter and spirit, as was proven Sunday in the sacred songs and Eugene Field's "Winkin' and Blinkin' and Nod."

MRS. GEORGE S. BAKER DIED SUNDAY NIGHT

Mrs. George S. Baker died Sunday night at 10 o'clock, after a year of failing health from a complication of diseases, due to a general breaking down of her physical powers.

The funeral services have not yet been arranged, and the time will not be set until a sister, Mrs. Helen Austin of Hannibal, Mo., has been heard from. It is not expected that she can attend the services as she is rather an invalid from rheumatism.

Mrs. Baker was nearly 70 years old and was a native of Kentucky. She was twice married. Her maiden name was Julia A. Abbott. Her first husband was William Stephens, whose death occurred at their home in Kansas City about forty years ago. His burial took place in Hannibal, Mrs. Baker's home at the time of their marriage. About thirty years ago she was married to George S. Baker of this city. She was a member of the Episcopal church and a faithful adherent of that faith. Mrs. Baker was a woman of many pleasant social qualities, and she leaves many sincere friends.

MONTGOMERY SOLD

HIS INTEREST IN THE CLOTHING STORE TO CORWIN AND MURRIN.

Has Been in Business Here for Fourteen Years and Has Been Successful—To Remain Here.

J. F. Montgomery sold out his interest in the Montgomery-Corwin-Murrin clothing store Monday to his partners, C. C. Corwin and John Murrin. Mr. Montgomery is to retire from active business life and has several plans under consideration. He will, however, remain with the new firm until November 1. His son, W. J. Montgomery, will remain with the firm for the present, but he expects to leave soon, as he has several offers under consideration.

Mr. Montgomery has been in business in Maryville for the past fourteen years. In 1897 Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Corwin bought out the clothing store of G. W. Snapp & Son, and in 1907 the clothing firm was incorporated, with John Murrin as a third partner.

The two members of the new firm are well known over the county and are successful business men. John Murrin has been connected with the clothing store for twenty-seven years, having started with Hughes & Snapp in 1884. He was employed in the store when Geo. W. Snapp & Son were in charge, and also when Montgomery & Corwin bought out the store.

The many friends of Mr. Montgomery are sorry to learn of his retirement from active business in Maryville, but are wishing the new firm success. Mr. Montgomery comes from a family of merchants that have been in business in Northwest Missouri since pioneer days, and have always been noted for the success they have attained.

LITTLE CHILD DIED ON HER FIRST BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Godsey are bereaved in the death of their youngest child, Virginia Claire, who died Monday morning at 3 o'clock, which was the first anniversary of her birth. She was taken suddenly sick Sunday morning of cholera infantum and her case was considered hopeless from the first. The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the family home, conducted by Rev. Claude J. Miller of the First Christian church. Mr. and Mrs. Godsey have three other children, Olivetta, William Townsend and Robert Merl.

STILL IN ERROR.

In deciding to veto the admission of New Mexico and Arizona into the Union, the President begins the enactment of another series of political errors for which his administration stands in a class alone. It is also understood that he will veto all the tariff reform bills sent to him by this session of the Sixty-second Congress, even to those schedules upon which he has himself urged the immediate need of revision.

The President's vetoes will be not only an injustice to the people whom he has the honor to serve, but they will be little short of an outrage upon political expediency. The President's reasons so far offered fall far short of justifying his refusal to grant the measure of relief offered in these bills.

The people of New Mexico and Arizona have been denied statehood by Congress for the last forty years on one pretext or another, but really because they could not be counted on as safely Republican in politics. To deny them now upon the simple ground that one of them has provided in its constitution for the recall of its political officers, after the bill has passed both branches of Congress by an overwhelming majority, is not only an error but a grave wrong.

It is wrong because the people of every state have the right to govern themselves according to their own wishes so long as they do not exceed the limitations of the federal constitution, and the principle in itself affords a protection to the people and a privilege which they are not likely to abuse. The bill, as passed, provides for the submission of the question again to the people, and this is as far as the members of the senate and house felt that they were justified in going. If the people of Arizona a second time in their sober moments, declare for the principle, they should have the right to it.

The President's announced opposition to the wool bill and the free list bill is little short of frivolous. He has declared himself that the present wool schedule is "indefensible" and needs immediate revision downward. In order to delay tariff revision which threatened to become a nightmare to the standpat Republicans, Aldrich and Cannon evolved the idea of a tariff commission during the Sixty-first Congress, and the President fell in with the idea. The commission was appointed and has been in existence many months, but all through the present session of Congress and up to the present time it has refused to make any report. The elections last fall were a plain revolt against delay and the refusal to obey the public will which the present session has earnestly endeavored to heed and observe.

While the commission may or may not gather honest information and helpful facts, it is up to Congress to enact laws. No commission is needed to determine that relief is needed. The house and senate have shown their earnestness by smoothing out their differences and agreeing upon bills that can pass both houses. Now, if Mr. Taft nullifies all this work upon the flimsy excuse that his delinquent commission has not taken its job seriously enough to offer any information to a body that has been industrious and active, he will assume the most ridiculous position he has yet taken since "brother Charley" became the real President.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE.

Maryville People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy and other serious troubles. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Maryville proof:

G. W. Hempstead, East First street, Maryville, Mo., says: "When suffering from an extreme sensitiveness in the small of my back, I was advised by a friend to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. I procured a box at Charles A. Love's drug store and they lived up to representations. I have never had any trouble from my back or kidneys since."

SEVERAL ARRESTS MADE FOR FAST DRIVING

Several arrests of auto drivers were made Sunday evening by Night Policeman Clyde Avitt for reckless and fast driving in the city. It is understood that six or seven arrests were made and that they will appear before or Tuesday morning to answer to the Police Judge Johnson this afternoon charge.

Several automobilists on coming from the Chautauqua Sunday evening seemed to disregard altogether the speed ordinance and also the safety of the people. Several of the cars, it is said, were going at a fast clip, estimated to be nearly twenty-five or thirty miles an hour, while coming to the city on Fourth street, which was crowded with buses and buggies. Several of the automobilists are hauling the people to and from the Chautauqua grounds this week and during the afternoon and evening Sunday the street was used and was badly crowded with vehicles.

A Turkish Love Story.

A Turk knocked at his beloved's door, and a voice answered from within, "Who is there?"

Then he answered, "It is I."

Then the voice said, "This house will not hold thee and me."

And the door was not opened.

Then went the lover into the desert, where there is nothing but Allah, and fasted and prayed in solitude.

And after a year he returned and knocked again at the door.

And again the voice asked, "Who is there?"

And he said, "It is thyself."

And the door was opened to him.

D'Orsay and His Tailor.

"D'Orsay the Complete Dandy," as Mr. Flegmouth Shore calls him in his biography was fully aware of the value of his patronage to the tailors. When clothes arrived for him, in the most mysterious manner banknotes had found their way into the pockets. Once, when this accident had not happened, D'Orsay bade his valet return the garments with the message that "the lining of the pockets had been forgotten."

BACK FROM RACE CONGRESS

Dr. Felix Adler Tells of Uplift Plans Made in London.

New York, Aug. 14.—Dr. Felix Adler, head of the Society for Ethical Culture, has returned from attending the universal race congress in London, enthusiastic over the plans made there.

"It was decided to establish two bureaus," he said, "the first a press bureau to disseminate information concerning the activities of the oppressed races. The other will attempt to make authentic investigations of the grievances of the oppressed races."

POLICE AND MOBS FIGHT IN LIVERPOOL

Troops Called Out After Policeman is Killed.

Liverpool, Eng., Aug. 14.—Serious rioting, growing out of the strike, took place here. One policeman was killed by being struck on the head with a brick and many persons were injured.

An altercation between a policeman and strikers during a transport workers' demonstration at St. George's hall started the trouble, which culminated in a general melee. When this disorder had been put down and the strikers scattered they gathered again in the Islington quarter and resumed their attacks upon the officers with serious results.

One hundred thousand men were gathered in groups about St. George's hall listening to speeches by labor agitators, and the scenes of violence following the attack upon policemen necessitated the calling out of police reserves. When they arrived one party of fifteen policemen was surrounded and disarmed, the rioters attacking them with their own batons. In the fight the commanding officer of the police was dangerously wounded.

So great was the disorder that the riot act was read and troops were called out to assist the police. The mob fought desperately with sticks and stones and, in fact, with any handy missile. Gradually, however, by the combined efforts of the troops and police, the crowds which were surrounding seven speakers' platforms erected on the plateau fronting the hall, were cleared away. Many policemen and rioters were injured in the hand-to-hand fighting. After the fight St. George's hall was converted into a temporary hospital.

Driven from the center of the city the crowd sullenly repaired to the Islington quarter, one of the lowest and roughest in Liverpool. Here the police were baffled in the narrow streets, for the desperate rioters barricaded themselves in the houses and volleyed down bricks, slates and chimney pots from the roofs upon their heads.

Campaign Bill Agreed To.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Agreement on the campaign publicity bill was reached by the senate and house conferees. The measure as agreed on will be practically the same as that adopted by the senate, which amended the house bill providing for publicity in primary as well as other elections. The limitation of campaign expenditures to $5,000 for a congressional and to $10,000 for a senatorial candidate, will be retained.

Negroes Find Place to Stay.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 14.—Difficulty in securing accommodations for the thousand or more delegates to the National Negro Educational association, which threatened to mar proceedings, has been overcome by the establishment of several temporary hotels and restaurants for the exclusive use of delegates who found hotel doors closed to them by reason of their color.

TWO KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

Pennsylvania Flyer Jumps Track at Fort Wayne.

THIRTY OTHERS ARE INJURED.

Two Engines Pulling Eighteen-Hour Train From Chicago to New York Sideswipe Freight Engine and Pile Up—Steel Cars Save Many Lives.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 14.—Two persons were killed and thirty injured when the Pennsylvania eighteen-hour train, enroute from Chicago to New York, jumped the track on the western outskirts of the city while going at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

In leaving the rails the two engines pulling the passenger train sideswiped a freight engine.

The baggage car, smoker, buffet and two sleepers turned over in the ditch. Most of the injured were seated in the diner and smoker when the accident occurred. The main track and the track on which the freight train was standing were torn up for a distance of two hundred yards.

The two engines of the flyer were torn from their trucks and thrown down the embankment to the park, while the engine of the freight reared up in the air over the trucks of the flyer's engines.

The all-steel cars of the flyer were put to the first actual wreck test they have ever undergone and proved to be all that has been claimed for them by their designers.

Only the first two cars of the heavy nine-car train were badly smashed.

Passengers on the seven rear cars escaped with only cuts and bruises whereas, it is declared by railroad men, if the cars had been of the old fashioned wood construction, the carnage would have been frightful.

The dead: Baggageman Valentine Snyder; Engineer William Arreck.

It will take a day or more for the wreck trains to clear away the wreck, as the cars are extremely heavy.

CONGRESS WILL SOON END

Tariff Revision Legislation Will Be Settled This Week.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The whole tariff revision legislation question will be settled this week, which in all probability will mark the closing of congress. Almost all of the members of both houses are anxious to get home.

All the power of the Democratic party that now controls the house for the first time in many years and of the effective Democratic-progressive Republican coalition in the senate will be centered on quick action in the trio of pending tariff measures. This means, in the belief of leaders of both parties, an adjournment possibly by the end of the week, or at any rate, within a few days thereafter.

Out of the present tangled situation, with the three tariff bills—wool, free list and cotton—in varying stages of legislation, the wool measure will be the first to emerge. It will be rushed past its final stage in the house by adoption of the conference report today and then hurled over to the senate for adoption there, if possible, Tuesday, and then on to the expected presidential veto, which awaits all the tariff revision bills.

The state election will be held Sunday, Aug. 20, and it is the general impression that it will be overwhelmingly for Madero and Gonzales.

COURTLAND W. TOEL LOCATES AT LITTLE ROCK

Courtland W. Toel, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Toel of this city, went to Little Rock, Ark., last week and on Saturday commenced work with the Henry Leigh wholesale grocery house of that city as salesman to the jobbing trade of that house. This is a splendid position for our Maryville young man, and is due recognition of his business ability.

He has been a traveling salesman for a St. Joseph house—E. W. Chase & Sons—and the John C. Morrell company of Des Moines, Ia., since he was graduated from our high school, four years ago. Not many young men of his age—22 years—could be ready to accept such a place as he has just taken, and there is no doubt about his success.

Miss Ella Roney left Monday for St. Joseph, where she will study the fall styles in millinery at the Englehart-Davison wholesale house.

Mrs. Edward Brown and Mrs. Harry Martin of Hopkins were business visitors in the city Saturday.

WATER LILLIES OF RARE BEAUTY MAY BE OURS

In reply to The Democrat-Forum's query Saturday about starting water lilies in McJimsey lake and other lakes about our city, in speaking of the water lilies at Mark Turner's store, Alfred Engelmann, our florist, said Monday that the flowers are easily started and could be successfully cultivated here. We hope our folks who are interested in the matter of civic beauty will read what he says and then see what can be done to make these little bodies of water beautiful. Mr. Engelmann says:

"There are hundreds of varieties of both hardy and tender water lilies in all colors, ranging from the purest white to darkest crimson, and from the most exquisite shade of soft yellow to the tenderest shade of blue. The species range in latitude from the tropics to the far north and anything from a tiny fish globe to a lake or pond, whether artificial or natural, can be beautified by these beautiful specimens, which need practically no attention."

Mr. Engelmann can secure for any one the proper varieties suitable for their demands, and start them in proper season. Prices range from a few cents, for the more common species, to as many dollars for the choicer and rarer varieties.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

A Simple Remedy Brings Back the Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappear.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Koch Pharmacy.

CHARGE RANCHER SMOTHERS WIFE

Henry Claussen and Sister-in-Law Arrested at Sheridan.

WOMAN'S BODY WAS EXHUMED

No Traces of Typhoid, Declared Cause of Death, to Be Found, and Absence of Poison Also Noted—Man's Actions Arouse Suspicion.

Sheridan, Wyo., Aug. 14.—Charged with the murder of his wife, who died July 3 under mysterious circumstances, Herman Claussen, a prominent and wealthy Sheridan county rancher, was placed under arrest upon a warrant sworn out by County Attorney Gogerty.

His sister-in-law, Miss Augusta Vogelar, who has been visiting at the ranch, was also arrested as an accessory.

International complications may ensue as a result of the arrests, as the Vogelar family, of which Mrs. Claussen was a member, is believed to be closely connected with official circles in Germany.

At the time of Mrs. Claussen's death, typhoid fever was given as the cause. No physician was called during her supposed illness, Claussen and Miss Vogelar being the only attendants, but as nothing unusual developed from an interrogation by the health officer and coroner, no inquest was held and only a cursory examination of the body was made.

Interment was made on the ranch.

Husband's Actions Arouse Suspicion.

Claussen's peculiar actions when he called at a local undertaking establishment for a casket, his known eccentricities, the fact that none of his neighbors had been aware of his wife's illness and rumors picked up in the vicinity of the ranch later combined to arouse the suspicions of the authorities. On July 9 the body was exhumed and a post-mortem and inquest held. Drs. W. A. Steffen and E. E. Levers of Sheridan made the examination and found no evidence of typhoid. A verdict of "cause unknown" was returned by the coroner's jury.

Portions of the anatomy were sent by Coroner Halley to Prof. Knight of the state university at Laramie for chemical examination for poisons, but nothing developed and a negative report was returned. The supposition now is that Mrs. Claussen was strangled or smothered to death. The police are said to have one witness who will swear he saw Mrs. Claussen at work in the garden four days before her death and three who saw her sitting at the table with her sister and husband the evening of the same day. Others are reported to have overheard Claussen make the statement that Miss Vogeler was his intended second wife.

SKY CONTESTS IN CHICAGO

Series of Accidents Marks Opening of Aviation Meet.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—A series of accidents that put three aeroplanes out of commission without injuring their drivers did not serve to mar the success of the opening of the international aviation meet here.

While no records were broken, the number of aviators participating and the total time spent in the air exceeded the anticipations even of the flyers.

Arthur B. Stone and his mechanic, in a Queen monoplane, suffered the most serious accident, their fall resembling that in which Moissant met his death. The men had risen to a height of forty-five feet when a sudden gust of wind struck the car, and as Stone attempted a sharp turn the airship overturned. Both men fell under the aeroplane but missed the engine and escaped unhurt.

Soon afterward Frankie Coffyn, by an eastward swoop, struck the monoplane in which Rene Simon was rising, disabling Simon's car so it could not be used.

The machines driven by St. Croix, Johnstone, James V. Martin and Capt. Paul W. Beck also sustained injuries while alighting.

Earl L. Ovington was the winner in the two chief events that were started. In his monoplane he defeated Thomas Sopwith in the twenty-mile monoplane race, making the fifteen laps in 23 minutes and 51 seconds. Sopwith ended the race in six seconds greater elapsed time.

Ovington also won the fourteen-mile race across the water, the course being two trips from the judges' stand around a crib three and one-half miles in Lake Michigan. Ovington completed the course in 17 minutes 13 seconds. Sopwith again was second with 17 minutes 26 seconds; Stone, who had obtained another machine, being third in 19 minutes 30 seconds.

Unofficial estimates gave both the altitude and endurance contests to W. G. Beatty.

FIVE HUNDRED DEAD IN JAPAN

Tidal Wave and Typhoon Cause Great Devastation.

OVER 200 FISHERMAN DROWN

Water at Tokio Swept Away Many Houses, Including Tea House With 33 Persons—People Blown From Their Housetops.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 14.—More than 500 lives were lost and great devastation ashore and afloat resulted from a typhoon and tidal wave which swept over Japan, according to advices brought here by the Empress of Japan. The fishing fleets from Shidzuoka suffered severely. More than 200 fishermen were drowned.

At Tokyo a tidal wave swept away many houses, including a large tea house with thirty-five people. The Suzaki licensed quarters on Shimagaway bay were demolished, scores of persons being drowned, crushed to death or mortally injured. The noted Sherigawa inlaid work factory collapsed and fifteen employes were killed, those who escaped swimming to roofs of neighboring houses after crawling from the debris.

A torpedo boat was swept ashore at Tokyo and several steamers foundered, while big liners dragged anchors.

Eight of forty men on the Aomori Maru survived when she went down in the typhoon off Kuna and 100 fishermen were drowned off there. A dredge at Chiba was lifted from its moorings and cast far ashore. At this place sixty-four men who went to save a fishing depot were drowned. Messages from many points tell similar tales of disaster, of fishing vessels sunk, rivers overflowed and sea walls broken.

Thousands of houses collapsed, the number in Tokyo and vicinity being over 12,000, according to official statistics. The warehouse and factory districts of Toyko suffered severely, eight warehouses containing goods worth $16,000,000 being demolished.

The typhoon came in the early morning, blowing more than sixty-five miles. As they rose the waves pounded the sea walls and the tidal wave followed, the lower districts of Tokyo being flooded with such suddenness that the awakened residents took shelter on housetops, many to be blown off and drowned.

FORGERS BUSY IN THE WEST

Iowa Officers Find Many Cases Where Bogus Checks Are Passed.

Des Moines, Aug. 14.—Secretary P. W. Hall of the Iowa Bankers association is engaged in aiding detectives in running down what is believed to be a clever gang of check forgers who have been taking advantage of the fact that a goodly number of wealthy Iowa farmers have been spending the summer in the west.

They succeeded in effecting the arrest at Manitou, Colo., of F. W. Rhodes and an accomplice, who are accused of getting $475 on a check by means of the forged name of an Iowa farmer. Jacob Arnold of Dexter, Ia., was in Manitou about three weeks ago, and there met Rhodes, who said he was a banker and talked of starting a bank in Iowa. A week later the bank at Dexter received a check for $475, purporting to be signed by Arnold, and when the latter returned home recently, he for the first time heard of it.

Rhodes is supposed to have obtained Arnold's name from the hotel register. The bankers' association is also on the trail of Walter Ellick, who, at Salt Lake City, is supposed to have forged the name of a farmer living near Essex, Ia., for $350.

Another similar case has been heard from at Florence, Colo., where $610 was secured. A check for $1,000 on a Des Moines bank, supposed to be signed by a farmer, was received from Salt Lake City, but the bank was suspicious and refused to pay and it is expected an arrest will follow. Other cases are at Ogden and Bronson, Mo.

ASSAILS CAMORRA LAWYER

Witness Says Licy Bribed Him to Swear to False Testimony.

Viterbo, Aug. 14.—Alessandro Licy, the attorney for the defense, was the object of an unfriendly demonstration at the Camorra trial. Grimaldi, formerly chief of the branch of the Camorra at Castellamare, testified that Licy had bribed him to bear false witness against Tomasso de Angelis. It is charged that the Camorrists, wishing to divert suspicion from themselves, caused the priest, Vitozzi, to falsely denounce De Angelis and Gaelano Amedeo as the murderers of Gennaro Cuoccolo and Signora Cuoccolo.

Political Unrest in Spain.

Madrid, Aug. 14.—Recent events, including the mutiny on the Spanish battleship Numancira and strikes and republican demonstration at Cadiz and Barcelona, indicate clearly the political unrest in Spain and the serious difficulties met by the government in its attempt to maintain order. Agitation against the ministry and the monarchy increases and censorship over press and telegraph is severe.
